Southey in III Class Honours, with distinction in English; J. Toppin and F. Direks satisfied the examiners but not in Honours; H. W. As will be seen from a Police Court report, the series of robberies from the Hongkong Hotel did not end with the last case reported, when some four or five rooms were looted. Mr McInnes, assistant in the hotel, missed a gold watch and chain on Sunday morning, and promptly communicated with the Police, which led to the discovery that a considerable number of valuable articles belonging to a lodger had F. Belsey, the Gladstonian candidate, who also disappeared. The Police, however, The Royal Artillery Athletic Sports will be have been fortunate enough this time to the Cricket Ground. Something was said lately by Cassan His Excellency concerning the re-arrangement of the pay attached to membership of the Brigade, but it would be more reassurmouthshire, Necker, Telemachus, Da- ing to know that special arrangements have been made by the authorities to meet the increased demand on the Government Brigade consequent on the disbandment of the Volunteers. It will not be surprising to many to learn that the local Offices have given up the expensive luxury of a Fire Brigade. They have practically been doing York, left Singapore on the 24th April, for years back the work of Home and Continental offices, and receiving return nothing save the back-handed attentions of Home Companies generally known as the "war of rates." Such a one-sided arrangement was bound come to an end, but the end has come very quietly and without ostentation. As we have said, we trust the Government has taken time by the forelock and made every preparation for the new condition of things. We have more than once observed my for this port on the 20th April, | that it is impossible to estimate the services to the public performed by the members of the Volunteer Fire Brigade. Such services cannot well be put in dollars and cents, and when they are rendered gratuitously, as they have been for many years, it is perhaps better that no attempt should be made to do so. It would, however, be most ungracious to allow the dislandment of this most useful, disinterested and hard- morning. I saw the prisoner coming into WE note the return of Admiral Lang to his working Corps of Volunteer Firemen to Command of the Paiyang squadron. He said that the Government will acknowledge he left about nine u'clock. He refused to their services by a hearty vote of thanks, or in some other manner consenant with word to Wai Tak Lane, I told Mr McInnes the feelings of the gentlemen who now retire from the gallant and gratuitous services 8 Wai Tuk Lane, the Yat Lam Club. which they have so long rendered to this community. If ever a medal for steady, disinterested service to the public was fairly earned, we are of opinion it has been well merited by the members of the Hongkong Yolyateer Fire Brigade.
